THE LIFE AND LOVING LEGACY OF

Consuella Atinkah

On August 16, 1948, Consuella Atinkah was born in Philadelphia, PA to the union of Wilbert and Bernice Lula (Pridgen) Bean. She was the 2nd oldest of seven children: Robert, Theresa, Naomi, Wilbert Jr, Miriam and Isaiah. Consuella, spent her formative years growing up in Sharon Hill, PA receiving her education in the Darby Township school district, successfully graduating from Darby Township High School in 1969. Shortly after graduation, Consuella attended classes at Philadelphia Community College. It was there that she decided to pursue her personal aspiration of working in the healthcare field becoming a Certified Nursing Assistant serving the elderly for over 20 years.

On February 22,1969, she married Garland L. Thompson. To this union were born Garland Thompson, Jr, who died in infancy and a daughter, Consuella. Twenty years later, Consuella decided to remarry to Michael Osei Atinkah in 1989.

Family was very important to Consuella. She loved being around her family and they loved being around her. Consuella would always gather the family together to spend quality family time or to do her most favorite pastime in the world, watching movies. When she was not working, or spending time with the family, or watching movies, Consuella would engage herself in one of her many creative hobbies which included: knitting, crocheting, macramé or reading.

The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her,
So that he shall have no need of spoil.”

In 2000, Consuella became a member of The Oasis of Praise Ministries, where she found her calling to serve God through her service to others. She demonstrated her faith through helping others and sharing the good news of the gospel with them. It was not uncommon for Consuella to share her bible study notes with people she just met on the bus or at a store, sharing with them the gift of salvation through Jesus Christ and then bringing them to Sunday morning worship service. She was always encouraging others and would help anyone who needed help regardless of their background.

Our dear Consuella, was truly a beautiful lady who cared for every life that God had placed in her path. She loved God’s people and most importantly she loved the Lord with all her heart. She brought immense joy to her family and friends with her wit, her kind-hearted smile and generous spirit. She will be sorely missed and our memories of her will keep our hearts full for many, many years to come.

Preceded in death by her parents Wilbert and Bernice and her siblings Robert Bean, Sr., Theresa (Bean) Boykins, and Naomi Bean, Consuella Atinkah leaves to cherish her memories, her daughter, Consuella Monk (Dante), her sister Miriam Bean; brothers Wilbert Bean, Jr (Rita), Isaiah Carraway-Bean; two grandsons Joshua and Joseph Monk; nieces Kiana Thomas, Monique Boykins; nephews Robert Bean Jr., Stephan Dalton (Tamisha), Wilbert Bean III and a host of cousins, family and friends.
