Family & Friends

Family

*I'd like to say a few words that I feel should be said,
About how families get together when someone is dead.*

*We seldom visit each other, sometimes we never call,
But when death is in the family you can always find us all.*

*We cry and hug each other, and I think it's a shame,
There are members in the family who don't even know your name.*

*We never ask each other, is there something I can do?
I guess our attitude is, I've got mine, so go get yours too.*

*This relative has a little more than the one who lives cross town,
So when we get together, no one wants that one around.*

*And the sad part are the children that are coming up today,
Because of what they see us do, they'll function the same way.*

A Note of Thanks & Appreciation

We are humbled by your thoughts, prayers, telephone calls, acknowledgements, cards, words of comfort, but most importantly, your presence here today. Mere words cannot truly express how grateful we are. May God bless each of you.

The Lane Family.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever. ~ Psalm 23 (KJV)
