Life Reflection of Elsie M. Robinson

Elsie M. Robinson transitioned peacefully to her Savior on October 4, 2015. The daughter of the late Marvin Bright and Norain Jones Bright, Elsie was born in Gholsonville, Brunswick County, Virginia.

She was baptized at an early age at Jerusalem R.Z.U.A Church and received her education in the Brunswick County school system.

Elsie held many positions in her lifetime; the most important of which was being a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She loved her family dearly, and she was very much loved by them all.

Elsie loved to cook. Her family especially enjoyed her complete Thanksgiving dinners, also her heavenly strawberry shortcake, and many of her southern down-home dishes. Elsie also enjoyed watching over and protecting her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and all the neighborhood children, and joking and laughing.

A beloved member of her community, Elsie had an incredible way of showing God's love to everyone she befriended or came in contact with. In addition to nurturing her family, she also enjoyed gardening, helping our neighbors, decorating, bingo, pokeno, music and dancing.

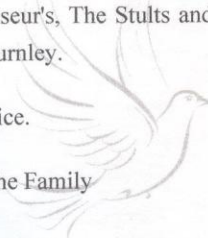

She was preceded in death by: her parents, two sisters: Donnell Gass and Eunice Macklin; and for brothers: Curtis Lee Bright, Calvin Bright, Gilbert Bright, and Louis Bright.

Elsie leaves to cherish many beautiful memories to: her husband, Earl Robinson, Sr.; four children: Earl Robinson, Jr.(La-von), Elaine peace (Andrey), Elizabeth Robinson (and beloved grand-dog, Prancer), Elsie Robinson (Greg); sisters: Shirley Baker of Henrico, North Carolina, Gladys Davis (Glenn) of Lawrenceville, Virginia, and Maude Bright of Richmond, Virginia (William Jr.); brothers: George Raymond Bright of Broadnax, Virginia and William Bright of Lawrenceville, Virginia; two aunts: Virginia Hawkins of Broadnax, Virginia and Estelle Hawkins (Roosevelt) of Broadnax, Virginia; special daughters: Cynthia Roberts and Doreen Wright-Brown; special children dear to her heart: The Tuckers, The Ramseur's, The Stults and Zdzioch's; special sons, The Tucker Brothers; and a special friend, Mary Burnley.

A special thank you to Delco Dialysis, Jefferson Hospital and Taylor Hospice.

Now That I Am Gone

Now that I am gone, remember me with smiles and laughter. And if you need to cry, cry with your brother or sister who walks in grief besides you. And when you need me, put your arms around anyone and give to them what you need to give to me. There are so many who need so much. I want to leave you something- Something much better than words or sounds. Look for me in the people I've known or helped in some special way. Let me lie in your heart as well as in your mind. You can love me most by letting your love reach out to our loved ones by embracing them and living in their love. Love does not die, people do. So when all that's left is the Love, give me away as best you can.
