Life Story

Agnes Martha Mack was born on September 30, 1925 in Philadelphia, PA to the late Frank & Sarah Spraggans. She was the third of ten children. The Lord peacefully called Agnes home on December 7, 2016 with her family by her side.

Agnes, affectionately called "Aggie", was educated in the Philadelphia Public School System. Agnes met and married the late Edward Fletcher (Eddie) in 1942. This union was blessed with three daughters: Dorothea (Dot) who preceded her in death, Sarah and Agnes. She later married the late Sylvester Mack.

Agnes accepted Christ and was baptized under the pastorate of the late Rev. English at Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Cambridge, Maryland.

After relocating back to Philadelphia, Agnes joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church under the late Rev. Hiawatha Coleman. She was a faithful member of the Adult Sunday School and an Usher for numerous years. Agnes later joined Bright Hope Baptist Church, where she also was a member and faithful Usher until her health prevented her from serving.

Agnes was employed as a Presser in Cambridge, Maryland and Philadelphia, PA. However, she enjoyed caring for children in the neighborhood. One of her greatest fulfillments was caring for her grandson Elgin, who preceded her in death. Agnes enjoyed doing Word Puzzles, playing Board games, traveling and spending time with her family.

Agnes was preceded in death by her siblings, Robert Spraggans, Clarence Spraggans, Daniel Spraggans, Nathan Spraggans, Josephine Lee, Elizabeth Presberry, Althea Robinson and Delores Spraggans.

Agnes leaves to cherish her memory: her daughters, Sarah Fletcher and Agnes Holloman (Dennis); son-in-law, Jerome; six grandchildren, Larry (Debbie), Darryl, Renee, Kevin Sr., Teena and Deneen; six great grandchildren, Kevin Jr., Bryant (Jasmine), Alyssa, Ashley, Jair and Jazmine; one great great granddaughter, Natalie; one sister, Dorothea Pinyard; three sisters-in-law, Mary Gibson "Sluggie", Lavonia Fletcher "Bunny" and Ella Mae Jones; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
