THE LIFE & LEGACY OF

Claudia Marie Brown-Varela

Claudia Marie Brown-Varela was born in Darby, PA on October 17, 1947 to the late John E. Brown and Dorothy L. Brown. She committed her life to family and helping others. Known for her green thumb, she always had a home full of beautiful plants and was always willing to share her knowledge with anyone who would listen. Raised in Darby Township, she later moved and lived in Southern California for a number of years before returning to the place she knew best.

Sunset September 22, 2017, she was preceded into everlasting life by her parents, her son (James Varela), and three brothers (Johnny, Bobby and Drake).

She leaves to cherish her memory two sons: John Adam Brown and Walter "Spunky" Nelson, one daughter Jacqueline A. Varela; one step daughter, Jessica C. Sample; one sister Lavern Green; two brothers: Gerald and Thomas Brown, 12 grandchildren, 6 great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.

When tomorrow starts without me

And I'm not there to see;

If the sun should rise and find your eyes

All filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry

The way you did today;

While thinking of the many things

We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me

As much as I love you;

And each time that you think of me,

I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me,

Don't think we're far apart

For every time you think of me,

I'm right here in your heart.

What is a Mother?

A mother is someone who loves you

Who cares for you in every way

She sits down and listens to what you have to say

She always thinks your beautiful

Never puts you down

She always has a smile

To wipe away your frown

A mother is someone who believes in you

Always pushes you to go far

Tells you to believe in yourself

No matter who you are

A mother is like an angel

Although without the wings

She tells you to enjoy

Life's most smallest things

I really love my mother

She means so much to me

Mommy I really love you

And that's how it always will be.
