

Psaln 121 [A Song of degrees.] (KJV)

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The LORD is thy keeper: the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

John 14:1-6 (KJV)

1 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. 2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. 4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. 5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? 6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Life Reflection of Jerome H. Clarke

Jerome Henry Clarke, was born on February 5, 1948. He peacefully departed this life on March 29, 2015. He was the firstborn child to Ethel Clark and James Henry Clarke.

Jerome was baptized at the early age of nine at Mt. Zion Baptist Church of Philadelphia. Jerome was educated and the Darby Township school system. He was employed with Bookbinder's, Red Lobster® and the United States Postal Service.

Jerome had a daily routine of helping others throughout the community. For many years he provided services of shoveling snow, gardening, and anything else he could lend his hand to. He will be greatly missed among Burnside Road, and the Lincoln Park community.

Jerome's in years on earth for many, 67 years to be exact described as a kindhearted, easy-going and mild-mannered reserved individual. He also enjoys smoking cigars, while watching a Western or enjoying Gulf tournament. He especially enjoyed family gatherings.

Jerome was preceded in death by his father, James Henry Clarke.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory, his mother, Ethel Clarke; two brothers: Anthony Clarke of Darby Township, Pennsylvania and Carlisle (Robin) Clarke of New Castle, Delaware.

He also leaves behind a special friend, Darnell King as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Prayerfully & Sorrowfully Submitted, The Family

Memories

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun. Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.
