Obituary

On Saturday, July 25, 2015 our beloved Kenneth Tyrone Moore departed this life to be with the Lord. Kenneth "Kenny" Moore was born on October 11, 1968 to the late Carolyn M. McCord and the late Lawrence W. Moore, Jr. Kenny was a free spirit with a personality so bright that everyone he met loved him immediately. He was educated in the Southeast Delco School District while being raised in Darby Township. Kenny developed a passion for truck driving at a very young age, he then gained a lifelong skill for building and repairing cars. If it was broke, he would fix it. He took a liking to fishing, cooking and grilling. He also made a mean dish of mac and cheese, "so he said". Kenny was employed as an auto mechanic most of his life, he worked at Daughtry's Trailer Services, and B & M Auto Repairs with his cousin Little Bobby Moore. Kenny was a self-taught electrician and very handy with home repairs and landscaping. He was a jack of all trades, including combing his niece's hair and making sure they were dressed properly.

Kenny was a member of the Darby Township Volunteer Fire Company No. 4. Most of all he loved to listen to the oldies. Kenny was a devoted husband, father, brother, cousin and friend. He was an unselfish individual, never said "NO" to anyone. Kenny would always put others before himself, you could always count on Kenny to help you out. He loved his family and enjoyed spending time with them. Kenny was often called "Choo Choo" by his mother Carol and "Leggs" by his Uncle George.

Kenny was united in holy matrimony to Lorie Barnes in 2007. The love he shared with his wife out shined any star. Whenever Kenny walked into a room he always had a smile, followed by an"I Love You". That was our Kenny. Kenny leaves cherished memories to his loving wife, Lorie A. Moore, one son Kenneth Moore Jr., Atlanta, GA., one daughter Destini Peterson, Philadelphia, PA, two stepsons Tyler and Trevor Barnes, two step daughters, Fatima Fisher and Tori Barnes. Six sisters, Cynthia Briscoe Williams (Jay Dee) Vernita Blackwell, Andrea Jordan, Michelle and Lauren Moore, and Layle Milby. One unborn grandchild due in October and a step grandson Kehlil N. Gardner. Step mother Lorraine as he called her "MOM". Three brothers, Lawrence W. Moore, III, Leroy "Ervan" Steele and Shawn Lacy. He had a special brotherly bond with Robert "Moose" Daughtry and Phillip "Phil" Lacy. He had a special sisterly bond with Robin Rodgers-Wilkins, Kimberly Carter and Geneva Daughtry, and Robin "Pie" Moore. He leaves four Aunts, Lenora Dallas of Jersey City, NJ and Carol Moore of Darby, PA., Mary Catherine Moore and Doris Daughtry proceeded him in death. Five uncles, Joseph Clark, Robert Moore Sr., George Daughtry Sr., and Daniel Daughtry, Sr., Arthur McCord, Jr. proceeded in death He leaves his best friends Joey Vallery, Chauncey Billops, Rodney Porter and Robert Wilmer who proceeded him in death. Kenny leaves to cherish a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

My Darling Kenny,

Bay (I so often called him) nothing or no one would ever take the place of what we felt for each other, not even death. We will always belong to one another. We had a special bond like no other. Yes, we had our ups and downs but through it all we remained together. You are no longer with me now but in my heart you will always be. I keep asking God why and the answer he gave me, "why not, I allowed you to have him for a moment. Now its time for him to come home". Bay, I love and miss you dearly and forever, and with that being said sleep on my lover, my best friend, my husband and rest in Gods arms and be at peace.

Your loving wife, Lorie

The Things You Taught Me

The things you taught me, I'll never forget. The words shared will always be remembered. The many times you've been there through the good times and bad, the tears, and the laughs. No one can replace the love you gave me and what we had deep down inside. I'll feel your presence, but your remarks and expressions I will miss so much.

I love you Dad, Your son Trevor

Our Hearts Bleed

To Our Brother Kenny

It does not matter what you did or how you may have done it. We always loved you unconditionally. You are with the Lord now and our hearts will heal. You are truly a unique individual, with a great personality. You will hold a place forever in our hearts. Our children and grandchildren, your nephews, Rodney, Brandon, Daryl and niece Amanda, great nephews, Keisan, Milon, JJ, Legend and great niece, Jayde will remember you forever.

Your Sister and Brother-In-Law Mickie & Jay Dee
